

About Shanghai Chuman Network Technology Co., Ltd.

Shanghai Chuman Network Technology Co., Ltd. was established in October 2015, with a registered capital of 5,000,000 yuan. The core team is made up of the former key editors at Social Sciences and Humanities Publishing Center of Qingdao Publishing House and the former book editors of Shanghai Kidstone Network Technology Co., Ltd.

Our main businesses in recent years include book planning, production, printing and distribution. Our publishing field focuses on children's literature related with ACG (Anime, Comic & Game) entertainment, and Chinese internet literary works.

The team members have rich experience in book planning, production and marketing. We have planned and published many best-sellers and long-term-sellers, such as "The Secrets of Pan's Palace" (for 9-16 year-old kids, 2,000,000 copies sold), "Fantasy Little Princess" (for 8-13 year-old kids, 6,000,000 copies sold), "Candle in the Tomb" (internet literary work for adults, 1,000,000 copies sold, adapted into hot movie and TV plays), "Fights Break Sphere" (internet literary work for adolescents, movie and TV plays are being shot), "Spaceship Saier" (bestseller adapted from children's online games).

We have possessed a book production line which has acquired popularity and reputation in China's book industry, and brought fresh, happy and unforgettable reading experience for Chinese readers.

Shanghai Chuman Network Technology Co., Ltd. takes books as the main business, keeps a firm grasp on the works' content, participates in original IP creating, guides or participates in the whole-industry-chain operation on IP projects..We endeavor to become China's best content supplier of interactive entertainment and the best IP operator. We hope to create value and achieve a win-win relationship with our cooperators.
